

Final Interest Statements

1. Importance of water quality for agriculture.
2. Climate Change may require standard changes.
3. Better coordination among government entities.
4. Discharge permits: Understand whether requirements will change and if so how.
5. Importance of water quality for Wyoming's economy.
6. Environmental importance of water quality for the protection of fish, human health, drinking water, recreation, wildlife, and livestock.
7. Numerical/Narrative Standards need to be understandable and simplified.
8. Importance of water quality to public consumption
9. The importance of water quality to Recreation
10. Importance to understand and support the regulatory framework around water quality.
11. Importance that water quality standards are understandable and simplified.
12. The importance of water quality to Wildlife populations and habitat.